

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., NOV. 16, 1882.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

To take the wrinkles from your brow
And make yourself O. K.;
If you have got a grain of sense
You'll heed what here we say.
Go and see the show to-night,
That sweet girl Kitty Parker,
And Billy Simpkin's, Kitty's beau
And that cute, Bruno Barker.

THE burned opera house at Frankfort is to be rebuilt.

CORN is selling at 40 cents a bushel at several places in this county.

Go and see the Pathfinders to-night and you will be most pleasantly entertained.

THERE are many counterfeit silver dollars in circulation now. Look out for them.

THE Maysville reed and brass band will play in front of the opera house this evening. Go and hear the music.

THE jury in the case of S. S. Miner vs. Yancey & Alexander, on trial in the Mayor's court, disagreed and were discharged.

MR. THOMAS HORAN, JR., who was accidentally wounded a few days ago by the discharge of his pistol, our correspondent writes, is in critical condition.

MESSRS. CHENOWETH & Co. announce to-day the arrival of their stock of goods for the holiday season, which will be found very complete and attractive. They have also a very full supply of all kinds of pure liquors suitable for medicinal and family use. Those who are looking for absolutely pure liquors are invited to call.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer of the 15th says:

John Butcher, of Fleming county, Ky., was drowned off the steamboat Morning Mail some time during night before last, while en route to Cincinnati with a lot of horses. He boarded the boat at Maysville, somewhat under the influence of liquor, and in order to sober him up his partner fixed him a bed on the guard. It is supposed the man woke up, and his mind being confused by the surroundings, he walked overboard. The event probably transpired just above Higginsport.

MR. HERMANN LANGE whose good taste in the selection of goods for the holiday season is proverbial, has received a very handsome and unusually well assorted stock which he is now displaying. Buyers of holiday goods will do well to give Mr. Lange a call. He considers it no trouble to show his goods whether you purchase immediately or not.

Death of Israel Stickley.

Mr. Israel Stickley, an old and noted citizen died suddenly last night at his home in East Maysville. He was born in Pennsylvania, May 24th 1800, and for more than sixty years had lived in this city. He was a correct citizen and a hard-working industrious man. The funeral will take place to-morrow evening at 3 o'clock from his late residence, after services by Rev. J. K. Pace, of the Baptist church.

THE following is from the Natchez (Miss) Democrat:

Although the news was not unexpected, yet when the announcement was yesterday made of the death of Dr. Thos. S. Sharpe, there was a universal feeling of pain in the community. Dr. Sharpe was a native of Maysville, Ky., but for thirty years past had been among the most useful members of society, and one of the most distinguished physicians in Adams county. About two years ago he was suddenly stricken with partial paralysis, from which he never entirely recovered. He bore his long period of suffering with the heroic fortitude of a Christian philosopher and met his fate with the equanimity that characterized his life. In his death this community has lost a most useful member, the medical faculty a bright and shining light, and his family a tender and affectionate father. He goes to his grave regretted by all of those among whom he was long been both honored and admired.

The Pathfinders.

This troupe which will appear at the opera house this evening will give a refined entertainment, and one of the highest interest. The musical specialties are all new, and there are many humorous features in the programme that cannot fail to interest and entertain the audience. The programme, as we have said before, is absolutely free from any objectionable feature. The Fon du Lac (Wis.) Journal says: "You laugh to see and see to laugh, without any opportunity to catch a fresh breath. The entertainment is constituted similar to 'The Brook' by the Troubadours, but contains many more features of excellence. The performers are all good singers, and each adapted to their particular specialty. Unlike many other artists the Pathfinders individually do without overdoing. Nothing pertaining to vulgarity is exhibited, giving the public an evening of light enjoyment, distinctly portraying the artistic ability of ladies and gentlemen. The Pathfinders are deserving of success."

Lexington Guards.

Lexington Transcript, Nov. 14th.
A meeting of the Lexington Guards held at the armory last night was well attended, and four new members were enrolled, to-wit: Will Bareley, Fleming, Frank Kidd and James L. Leslie. Wednesday afternoon was selected as the time and Pettit's woods on Tate's Creek pike as the place of holding a target-shooting. The following resolutions were unanimously passed. Be it,
Resolved, That we have heard with the deepest regret and sorrow of the death of our comrade in arms, Sergeant Herley, of the Emmet Rifles, through an unfortunate accident he received while engaged in defense of the laws of his State—a wound which afterwards proved fatal. In the first flush of manhood his life is laid as a sacrifice on the altar of duty. We honored him in life, and we now give him this testimonial of our respect as a faithful, brave soldier and true man.
2. That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Lexington and Maysville papers, and be sent to the relatives of the dead soldier. Signed by the committee.
LIEUT. WIEHL,
LIEUT. ROBINSON,
ED. MOORE,
GEO. WILLIAMS.

A Dead Society.

Died, at 8 o'clock p. m., on the 15th, at the office of Sallee & Sallee, the Adelphian Society, age one minute. "Whom the Gods love die young." We have here a sad illustration of this old, old truth. The mortal pangs of birth were too great for this tender plant of celestial growth. We can now but wrap the ceremonies of the tomb about its fragile form, then the pall and the cold silent home of the dead. Mournfully we reflect, as we stand by its open grave, how evanescent, how fleeting is the beautiful and the lovely.

"And like the baseless fabric of this vision,
The cloud capped towers, the gorgeous palaces,
The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve;
And like this insubstantial pageant faded,
Leaves not a rack behind."
—MONO DELPHOS.

The Best.

There are other good cooking stoves and A. J. Egnew & Co., keeps them in stock, but if there are two stoves in existence which lay just claims to superiority in many respects over all others they are the OMAHA AND HOT BLAST CHARTER. We have not the space here to point out their many merits but call at our establishment on Market street and we will take great pleasure in doing so there, whether you wish to buy the stove or not. We consider it the best stove in the market. oct30d&wlm. A. J. EGNEW & Co.

Postponed.

The masquerade ball which was to have been given at Amazon Hall on the 17th inst., has been postponed in consequence of the death, last night, of a near relative of one of the managers.

Twenty-five Girls Wanted.

The above number of girls are wanted for day work at the Knitting Factory. Apply immediately to the MAYSVILLE KNITTING COMPANY.

THE Democrats have elected Mr. Henry Raub, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Illinois by 2,868 majority over C. F. Stratton his Republican competitor.

Ri. hard Hoffman, of Somerset Township Pa., has been a cripple for years, being paralyzed in his lower limbs. On last Thursday he declares that he crawled behind a barn, and while engaged in prayer he heard a voice say, "Arise and walk." He obeyed the command, and has been walking ever since.

COUNTY POINTS.

FEEN LEAF.

Mr. John B. Hanghey, oldest son of T. R. Hanghey, died Monday, November 6th, of typhoid malarial fever.

Terry Vleroy, who was kicked in the head by a mule while coon hunting about a week since, is improving, and we hope he will soon be out again. He has sworn off from coon hunting when the mule goes.

The "Kitchen Belles" club met at Mr. James Wood's residence, and after partaking of an elegant repast and enjoying themselves generally, adjourned to meet again in two weeks at Mr. Donovan's.

Corn is being delivered in this neighborhood at 40 cents per bushel. ELI.

GAS POINT.

No school at this place.
Farmers shipped some tobacco last week.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson paid a visit to relatives in Fleming county last week.

Our clever blacksmith, Isaac Elliott, will leave us in the spring and will move to Robertson county.

The protracted meeting at the Thompson Church closed with nine additions.

Several of our citizens attended Wm. Holton's sale in Germantown last Saturday. Mr. H. moves to Maysville the present week. U. R. SMILING.

BEECH GROVE.

The apple crop has been gathered.

J. W. Jett is having a large corn crib erected.

Our Sunday school has been suspended for the season.

Late potatoes are all dug, and the yield is immense.

Tobacco stripping has commenced. The crop is considerably damaged by what is called house-burning.

Corn shucking has begun. The crop in our locality is panning out beyond the expectations of the farmers.

A protracted meeting commenced Sunday at the M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Pollard.

The Mt. Olivet base ball club played the Red Rangers a match game last Saturday afternoon, the score standing twenty-seven to nothing in favor of the Red Rangers.

A number of sporting men have been rabbit and quail hunting the past few days and report that kind of game as being very plentiful.

The wheat crop in our locality is looking very promising at the present time. Wheat that was sown early has come up nicely and is growing rapidly and in some fields covers the ground, and looks as promising now as it did this time last year.

Rev's Tiller and Pace have been holding a protracted meeting at Two Lick Church for several days and will probably continue this week. Up to the present time one addition. The meeting is largely attended especially at night.

THE DAILY BULLETIN is read by quite a number of people in our locality and is pronounced a daisy by all, and so does HONEST PETE.

MILLWOOD.

A little girl whom Mrs. Ann Lindsay took from the infirmary in Maysville three years ago to raise, died last week of malarial fever.

To wish thee back we dare not, Mary,
In this world of grief and pain,
For God's word tells us our loss,
Dearest sister is thy gain.

Dr. Dougherty is having his tenant house improved.

Miss Mattie Cord and R. M. Harrison visited Orangeburg Sunday.

Elder Harkins preaches at Millwood Sunday morning and night. AMEN.

A Little Corpse that Kept.

Carrollto (O.) special to the Cincinnati Gazette: Twenty years ago Mr. Wallace Bosworth, of this place, buried a little two-year-old boy in the cemetery, and he has now just exhumed the remains to take them to Lexington, Ky., and finds the child looks as natural as the day it was buried. A bouquet of choice flowers which lay in the coffin gives no evidence of its having been in the abode of the dead for twenty years, and each flower appears fresh and natural. The flesh of the child is a natural color, and the remains can be recognized at a glance by those who knew the little one while on earth. It is the most singular case of preservation ever occurring in this section.

DIED.

At Butler, Mo., MARTIN PENNEBAKER LASHBROOK, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lashbrook, formerly of this county.

Down They Go.

Meaning the prices of job printing. The following low rates will hereafter rule at the BULLETIN Job Printing Rooms. They are the lowest ever offered in this city by any printing establishment. The reduction does not mean careless printing and inferior stock, but on the contrary first-class press-work and composition and the best quality of paper:

Bill Heads per ream	85 00
Two Reams	9 00
Letter Heads per ream	4 50
Packet Note Heads per ream	3 00
Commercial Note Heads per ream	2 75
Envelopes per thousand	3 00
Visiting Cards fifty	25c

And other printing at proportionately low prices. Rosser & McCarthy.
